ONE MAN SERIOUSLY HURT

Bodies of Two Dead Men Found Oroughing Near Head of Stairway of Building-Ross Hostelry is Practically Complete Loss.

PORTLAND, Jan. 20.—The Ross Hotel burned and A. Burt, Ernest Marquette and Tom Lourer perished. One man was seriously hurt. Ten fled to the street or jumped out of windows in their night clothes. Firemen rescued one naked woman. The two dead men were found crouched at the head of a stairway one near a window. All were terribly char-

SEATTLE, Jan. 20.—Battalion Chief Fred C. Gilham was killed when the Grand Theatre building burned. Nine others were injured. Gilham was found buri-ed under a half ton of debris, His feet were burned off. The roof

The charred theatre interior and heaped smoking timbers were searched for more victims. Gli-ham died after directing the men to carry a bose to the roof. He was standing on the gallery. Fire-men believe the chief stepped backward and fell into the balcony. A moment later the roof caved in burying him. The walls were left standing. The Rector Hotel guests next door fled to the street in their night clothes but retorned when they found there was no danger.

ANOTHER BOOTLEGGER IN TOILS OF POLICE

M. Fletcher Is Arrested; Search Hotel Room Reveals Imposing Ar-ray of Alcoholic Evidence,

Chief of Police T. B. Gurdane yesterday afternoon grabbed another bootlegger in the person of M. Fletch er upon whose trail he had been camping for three months. Having an imposing array of alcoholic evidence against him, the chief had little difficulty in securing a plea of guilty from the man. He paid a fine of $100 which brought the total receipts in fines for the month to $1020. Fletcher, who works in a local ga rage and who formerly lived in Walls Walla, was arrested on the street at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon and ushered to jail. There his keys were taken from him and armed with them the chief gained entrance to his room in the Hotel Pendleton which was locked with a Yale lock, There he found whiskeys, wines and other liquors in abundance and with them trays, decanters and glasse to assist in serving patrons. It was when confronted with this that Fietcher decided not Miss Ella Cawker has just received an extensive campaign to teach chil-

BILL WOULD REQUIRE ROAD TO BUILD WAREHOUSE SPURS

SALEM, Jan, 20 .- A bill requiring ; that railroads build spur tracks to any warehouse within 1500 feet of the main line of the road where there is not less than 300 tons of freight in the warehouse to be shipped, was introduced in the house yesterday by Representative C. C. Clark of Arling-The provision contains the con dition that the owner of the ware-house is to furnish the roadbed and ties for laying the rails, if he wants the spur. It is also provided that the warehouses are to be so located that thains may start on the spury with the same power ordinarily used on straight, level track.

The estray bill introduced in the house by Bowman of Hillsboro, which ovides for the taking up and sale of strayed animals came into the senate yesterday and was referred to the committee on livestock. The bill provides that an estrayed animal taken up shall be kept and reasonable diligence used to find the owner. The person taking up the aunal shall file notice within five days with the justice of the peace that he

(East Oregonian Special Service.) has used reasonable effort to find the owner. If the owner is not found the justice of the peace is required to order notice of sale fixing a time of fiffeen to twenty-five days before whic's son taking up the animal.

Senator Pierce of Union county was largely responsible for re-refer-ring the bill saying that he was averse to its adoption until he had heard the opinions of the stockmen.
